

INFORMATION

on the Regulations regarding the procedure for payment of subsidies to citizens for the purchase of housing

The regulation on the procedure for payment of subsidies to citizens for the purchase of housing was approved by the Resolution of the Cabinet of Ministers No. 182 of March 25, 2020.

In accordance with clause 7 of the Regulation, the district (city) departments of the following responsible organizations determine and assess the applicant's compliance with social criteria on the basis of the application and the documents attached to it:

- medical association;
- of internal affairs (office);
- financial department;
- state tax inspection;
- employment center;
- state enterprise of land management and real estate cadastre;
- district (city) mahalla and family support departments;
- District (city) council of the Youth Union of Uzbekistan;
- district (city) xokimiyat;
- participating commercial banks.

The applications and conclusions of the responsible organizations are considered by the commission formed in accordance with Appendix 3 to the Regulation regarding the selection of suitable citizens who will be paid subsidies in the district (city) approved by relevant district (city) xokims.

Based on the results of the review, a protocol of the meeting of the commission is drawn up and a decision of commission with a QR code (matrix barcode) on it is made to whether grant or refuse to issue subsidies, and the notification is sent to the appropriate district (city) public services center. This notice will be sent to the applicant by the representative of the public services center within one business day.
